Dear Ms. Ekirch,

Your letter of July 2nd was as thoughtful and complimentary as any I have ever received following a public address. I am most appreciative of your kind remarks and I am most pleased that I was able to convey a message of some interest to your student body.

As I have written to President Mortola, I thoroughly enjoyed my short time with all of you and came away in strong admiration of what you are achieving.

Thank you so much.

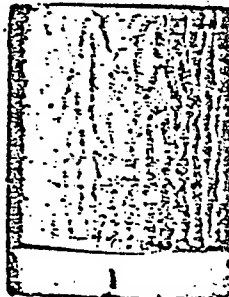

Yours sincerely,

STANSFIELD TURNER

Admiral Stansfield Turner, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C.

Dear Admiral Turner:

When I saw the enclosed photographs, it occurred to me that when a person is surrounded by that many flowers, he is seldom standing up delivering an address.

Seriously, we would like you to know that students continue to talk about your comments to them and our graduates. In my thirteen years of handling our commencements, I can honestly tell you that no talk reached the audience so effectively, and I never remember graduates shaking our speakers' hands as they received their diplomas.

We do thank you again. I hope the pictures will recall a pleasant occasion for you and show your family what you were doing on June 1, 1980.

Cordially,
